1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) and Local Rule 16.1(b), a meeting was held on April 18, 2024 at 4:00 PM Eastern via video conference and was attended by (i) Abha Khanna, Jyoti Jasrasaria, Michael Jones, Mark Haidar, and Narendra Ghosh for Williams Plaintiffs; (ii) Hilary Harris Klein, Christopher Shenton, Tom Boer, and Olivia Molodanof for NC NAACP Plaintiffs (iii) Terence Steed and Mary Carla Babb for Defendants Alan Hirsch, Jeff Carmon III, Stacie Eggers IV, Kevin Lewis, Siobhan O'Duffy Millen, Karen Brinson Bell, the North Carolina State Board of Elections, and The State of North Carolina (collectively, the "State Board Defendants"); and (iv) Katherine McKnight, Erika Dackin Prouty, and Alyssa Riggins for Defendants Philip Berger,

2. Discovery Plan.

- b. The parties will make Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a) initial disclosures no later than May 8, 2024.

Discovery will be needed on the following subjects:

- c. Williams Plaintiffs anticipate discovery on the following subjects:
 - i. The circumstances of drafting and enacting the 2023 Congressional Plan, including the legislative process and the formation of congressional districts 1, 6, 12, and 14.
 - ii. The demographic characteristics and projected electoral performance for districts in the 2023 Congressional Plan.
 - iii. The intent of the North Carolina General Assembly in enacting the 2023 Congressional Plan;
 - iv. The redistricting factors considered by individuals who drafted the 2023 Congressional Plan.
 - v. The totality of the circumstances showing that Black and Latino voters are denied an equal opportunity to elect their candidates of choice under the 2023 Congressional Plan.
- d. NC NAACP Plaintiffs anticipate discovery on the following subjects:
 - i. The circumstances of drafting and enacting the 2023 Senate Plan, including the legislative process and the formation of senate districts 1, 2, 5, 7, 8, and 37 through 42;
 - ii. The circumstances of drafting and enacting the 2023 House Plan including the legislative process and the formation of state house districts 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 21, 23, 24, 25, 27, 32 through 41, 49, 66, 71, 72, 74, 75, and 91;

- iii. The circumstances of drafting and enacting the 2023 Congressional Plan, including the legislative process and the formation of congressional districts 1, 3, 5, 6, 9, and 10.
 - iv. The demographic characteristics and projected electoral performance for districts in the 2023 Senate Plan, 2023 House Plan, and 2023 Congressional Plan.
 - v. The intent of the North Carolina General Assembly in enacting the 2023 Senate Plan, 2023 House Plan, and 2023 Congressional Plan;
 - vi. The redistricting factors considered by individuals who drafted the 2023 Senate Plan, 2023 House Plan, and the 2023 Congressional Plan.
 - vii. The totality of the circumstances showing that Black voters are denied an equal opportunity to elect their candidates of choice under the 2023 House Plan, the 2023 Senate Plan, and the 2023 Congressional Plan.
- e. The State Board Defendants anticipate discovery on the following subjects:
 - i. None anticipated at this time.
- f. The Legislative Defendants anticipate discovery on the following subjects:
 - i. The allegations and prayer for relief in Plaintiffs' Complaints, including but not limited to:
 - a. Plaintiffs' evidence of the alleged discriminatory effect of the 2023 Congressional Plan, the 2023 House Plan, and/or the 2023 Senate Plan on the rights of minority voters in North Carolina, and specifically:
 - i. Whether the minority group in the challenged districts is sufficiently large and geographically compact to constitute a majority in a single-member district;
 - ii. Whether the minority group is politically cohesive;
 - iii. Whether racially polarized voting exists in the specific districts challenged; and

- iv. Whether the totality of the circumstances show that the political process is equally open such that the members of the minority group have equal access to the political process and to elect representatives of their choice.
 - b. Plaintiffs' evidence of the alleged predominate use of race in drawing the 2023 Congressional Plan, the 2023 House Plan, and/or the 2023 Senate Plan.
 - c. Plaintiffs' evidence of the alleged discriminatory intent in enacting the 2023 Congressional Plan, the 2023 House Plan, and/or the 2023 Senate Plan.
 - d. Plaintiffs' evidence of the alleged intentional vote dilution resulting from the 2023 Congressional Plan, the 2023 House Plan, and/or the 2023 Senate Plan.
- ii. The defenses and allegations in Defendants' Answers, including but not limited to:
 - a. Plaintiffs' standing;
 - b. Plaintiffs' funding;
 - c. Plaintiffs' alleged harm; and
 - d. Plaintiffs' alternative maps and/or proposals.
- iii. The Legislature's legitimate redistricting objectives justifying any population deviations in the 2023 Congressional Plan, 2023 House Plan, or 2023 Senate Plan.
- iv. Any other topics listed by any other party.

The parties propose that the appropriate plan for this case (with any stipulated modification by the parties as set out above in Paragraph 2 and below) is that designated in Local Rule 26.1(a) as Exceptional. Presumptively, subject to stipulation of the parties or order of the Court on good cause shown, interrogatories (including subparts) and requests for admission are limited to 30 in number by each set of plaintiffs and defendants.

Depositions are presumptively limited to fifteen (15) fact witness depositions per side in addition to all opposing party experts and named parties. The parties agree to meet and confer should there be a need to seek additional depositions based upon information identified during discovery. Each deposition will be presumptively limited to seven and a half (7.5) hours total, and each witness may be deposed only once, with the exception of experts submitting supplemental reports on the 2024 election. Parties agree to confer in good faith on extending the time of depositions for witnesses involved in more than one state or congressional map. The parties also agree to allow additional, limited depositions of any experts submitting supplemental reports. The parties agree to meet and confer about any proposed modifications to these numbers if necessary.

Stipulated modifications to the case management track include:

- g. The date for the completion of all discovery (fact and expert) and for the purposes of any Motion under Rule 56, subject to agreement of the parties for a larger discovery period, is December 12, 2024 (“Completion Date”), except that the parties may provide supplemental expert reports following the results of the 2024 general election as provided below.
- h. The deadlines for depositions related to supplemental expert reports is February 21, 2025.
- i. Any motion under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure must be filed on or before February 28, 2025.
- j. The parties propose that a trial on the merits commence as soon as practicable after May 15, 2025. Trial is expected to last approximately 10 days. A jury trial has not been demanded.

Reports required by Rule 26(a)(2)(B) and disclosures required by Rule 26(a)(2)(C) are due during the discovery period:

- a. Deadline for Plaintiffs’ opening expert reports is August 15, 2024.
- b. Deadline for Defendants’ expert reports is October 10, 2024.
- c. Deadline for Plaintiffs’ reply to Defendants’ reports, if any, is October 31, 2024.
- d. Deadline for supplemental expert reports considering electoral results from the 2024 General Election is January 31, 2025.
- e. Deadline for supplemental rebuttal expert reports is February 14, 2025.

Supplementations will be as provided in Rule 26(e) or as otherwise ordered by the Court.

3. Mediation/Settlement.

The parties have discussed possible settlement and agree that settlement is unlikely in this matter and that a mediation conference would be unproductive.

4. Preliminary Deposition Schedule.

Preliminarily, the parties agree that the depositions of Plaintiffs' witnesses and Defendants' witnesses and expert depositions will be taken by the Completion Date, except for depositions related to supplemental expert reports. The parties will update this schedule at reasonable intervals.

5. Other Items.

The parties have discussed special procedures for managing this case, including reference of the case to a Magistrate Judge on consent of the parties under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), or appointment of a master. The parties have not consented to a Magistrate Judge's trial jurisdiction.

The parties have discussed whether the case will involve the possibility of confidential or sealed documents and state as follows in accordance with LR 5.5:

- The parties have discussed the issues of confidentiality raised in this case and the potential need for filing documents under seal. That discussion included the nature of any confidential documents that may be involved in the case, the possibility of using stipulations to avoid the need to file certain documents, and the possibility of agreed-upon redactions of immaterial confidential information in filings to avoid the need for filing documents under seal.
- The parties certify that few, if any, documents will be filed under seal. The parties agree to use the default procedures of LR 5.4(c). In addition, if the party filing the motion to seal is not the party claiming confidentiality, the filing party must meet and confer with the party claiming confidentiality as soon as practicable, but at least two (2) days before filing the documents, to discuss narrowing the claim of confidentiality. The motion to seal must certify that the required conference has occurred, and the party claiming confidentiality must file supporting materials required by LR 5.4(c)(3) within 14 days of the motion to seal.
- The parties also acknowledge that in the course of discovery or otherwise as necessary to litigate the case, they may be required to provide each other with sensitive, private, personal, or confidential information, specifically personally identifiable information from the North Carolina voter file for analysis by party experts. The parties are actively conferring about the scope of such data productions and whether the transmittal of confidential information can be limited in any way. If such information is ultimately needed, to ensure the security and confidentiality of such information, the parties anticipate submitting a joint request for a protective order governing confidential documents and information.

The basis of federal subject-matter jurisdiction is federal question.

Dated: April 23, 2024

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Hilary Harris Klein
